GOLF KID

Melbourne man Tim Nelson had so much trouble finding quality golf clothes for his kids, that he decided to start his own label, Golfkid.

Having attended the 2009 JB Were Australian Masters, Tim was fed up with the complete lack of products available for the younger generation. Tim's frustration soon led to action and 12 months later Golfkid was launched at the same event the entire concept was created – the 2010 Masters.

Fast becoming a favourite among kids, Mums and Grandparents throughout Australia; the Golfkid range features colourful attire including polo shirts, shorts and skirts as well as youth-friendly accessories such as ball-markers. With different fits for the boys and girls, the Golfkid clothing are all made with the active kid in mind with high quality materials and production designed to stand the test of time.

You won't miss the kids on the course with this great new range – look out for the adorable koala and kangaroo mascots that feature on the polo sleeves!

Golfkid is available at selected golf clubs.
